ARTICLE I. THE TOWN CORPORATE

Sec. 1.01. Corporate powers.

(1) The inhabitants of the territory comprised within the limits of the Town of Amherst, as such limits are hereinafter set out or as the same may be hereafter altered and established by law, shall constitute and continue a body, politic and corporate, to be known and designated as Town of Amherst, and as such shall have and may exercise all powers which are now or hereafter may be conferred upon or delegated to towns under the constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as fully and completely as though such powers were specifically enumerated herein, and no enumeration of particular powers by this Charter shall be held to be exclusive, and shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers and privileges and be subject to all the duties and obligations now appertaining to and incumbent on said town as a municipal corporation, and shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, and may have a corporate seal which it may alter renew, or amend at its pleasure by proper ordinance.

ARTICLE II. CORPORATE LIMITS

Sec. 2.01. Described by metes and bounds.

AMHERST TOWN CODE - CHARTER

§ 1. A plat depicting the corporate limits of the Town of Amherst, dated November 22, 1993, is on file in Chancery Order Book B-72 at the Amherst County Clerk of the Circuit Court's Office.

ARTICLE III. ADMINISTRATION AND GOVERNMENT

§ 1. (1) Mayor and councilmen as of July 1, 2018. The present mayor and councilmen of the town of Amherst shall continue in office and exercise all the powers conferred by this charter and the general laws of the State until January 1, 2019.

(2) Staggered elections; terms of office of mayor and councilmen; composition of town council. On the Tuesday following the first Monday in November 2018, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of the town of Amherst one elector who shall be denominated the mayor and five electors who shall be denominated the councilmen of the town. The mayor and the two town councilmen candidates receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected for terms of four years, and the three town councilmen candidates receiving the next greatest number of votes shall be elected for terms of two years. An election shall be held for the three council seats first expiring on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November 2020, and the three town councilmen so elected shall serve four-year terms. Elections thereafter shall be held on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November in even-numbered years, for terms of four years.

The term of each person elected under this section shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first day of January next succeeding his election and shall continue in office until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Every person so elected shall take an oath faithfully to execute and discharge the duties of his office to the best of his judgment as prescribed by law for State officers. The failure of any person elected or appointed under the provisions of this charter to qualify or to take the oath required, within the time prescribed for entering upon the discharge of the duties of the office to which he is elected or appointed, shall vacate the said office, and the council shall proceed and is hereby vested with power to fill such vacancy in the manner prescribed in the Code of Virginia.

The mayor and five town councilmen shall constitute the council of the town.

(3) Registrar and election officials; electorate. There shall be appointed for the town a registrar and officers of election in the manner provided for by general law of Virginia, and all elections held in said town shall be conducted in accordance with said general law; the electorate shall be that prescribed by general law.

(4) Council as judge of qualifications and returns of members; power to fine and expel council members, and to fill vacancies in council. The council shall judge of the election, qualification, and returns of its members; may fine them for disorderly conduct, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member. If any person returned be adjudged disqualified, or be expelled, a new election to fill the vacancy shall be held on such day as the council may prescribe. Any vacancy occurring otherwise during the term for which such person was elected shall be filled by the council by the appointment of any one eligible to such office. A vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled by the council from the electors of the town, and any member of the council may be eligible to fill such vacancy.

(5) Quorum of council. A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(6) Salaries of councilmen and mayor; mayor's salary is in lieu of fees. Each member of the council may receive a salary to be fixed by the council, payable at such times and in such manner as the council may direct. The mayor may receive a salary to be fixed by the council, payable in such manner and at such times as the council may direct.

(7) Powers and duties of mayor generally. The mayor shall preside at the meetings of the council and perform such other duties as are prescribed by this charter and by the general law, and such as may be imposed by the council consistent with his office. The mayor shall have no right to vote in the council, except in case of a tie he shall have the right to break the same by his vote; but he shall have the right to veto.

(8) Approval or veto of ordinances, and resolutions having the effect of ordinances; reconsideration and passage over veto. Every ordinance, or resolution having the effect of an ordinance, shall, before it becomes operative be presented to the mayor. If he approves, he shall sign it, but if not, he may return it, with his objections in writing, to the town manager who shall enter the mayor's objections at length on the minute book of the council. The council shall thereupon proceed to reconsider such ordinance or resolution. If, after such consideration, two-thirds of all the members elected to the council shall agree to pass the ordinance or resolution, it shall become operative notwithstanding the objection of the mayor. In all such cases the votes of members of the council upon such reconsideration and the names of the members voting for and against the ordinance or resolution shall be entered on the minute book of the council. If any ordinance or resolution shall not be returned by the mayor within five days (Sunday excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, it shall become operative in like manner as if he had signed it, unless his term of office or that of the council, shall expire within said five days.

(9) Vice mayor. The council shall, as soon as practicable after qualification, and biennially thereafter following the regular municipal election, appoint one of its members as vice-mayor. The vice-mayor, during the absence or disability of the mayor, shall perform the duties and be vested with all the powers, authority, and jurisdiction, of the mayor; and in the event of a vacancy for any reason in the office of mayor, he shall act as mayor until a mayor is duly appointed by the town council or is elected. The member of the council who shall be chosen vice-mayor shall continue to have all the rights, privileges, powers, duties and obligations of councilman even when performing the duties of mayor during the absence or disability of the mayor of the town.

(10) Regular and special meetings of council. The council shall, by ordinance, fix the time for their regular meetings, which shall be held at least once a month. Special meetings may be called by the town manager at the instance of the mayor or any two members of the council in writing; and no other business shall be transacted at a special meeting except that stated in the call, unless all members be present and consent to the transaction of such other business. The meetings of the council shall be open to the public except when in the judgment of the council the public welfare shall require executive meetings.

(11) Council minute book. The council shall keep a minute book, in which the town manager shall note the proceedings of the council, and shall record proceedings at large on the minute book and keep the same properly indexed.

(12) Council rules or procedures; certain matters may be adopted only by vote of majority of all members elected to council. The council may adopt rules for regulating its proceedings, but no tax shall be levied, corporate debt contracted, or appropriation of money exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars be made, except by a recorded affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to the council.

(13) [Repealed.]

(14) [Repealed.]

(15) Town treasurer; town depository; commingling of funds. The council may in its discretion designate the place of deposit of all town funds.

(16) [Repealed.]

(17) [Repealed.]

(18) [Repealed.]

(19) [Repealed.]

(20) Effective date of ordinances, resolutions and by-laws. All ordinances, resolutions and bylaws passed by the council shall take effect at the time indicated in such ordinances, resolutions or bylaws, but in event no effective date shall be set forth in any such ordinances, resolutions or bylaws passed by the council, the same shall become effective thirty days from its passage.

(21) Creation of office, appointment, compensation, and removal of town manager. The office of town manager is hereby created. The town manager shall be appointed by majority vote of the town council for an indefinite term. The manager shall be chosen by the council solely on the basis of executive and administrative qualifications, with special reference to actual experience in or knowledge of accepted practice in respect to the duties of the office hereinafter set forth. At the time of this appointment, the appointee need not be a resident of the town or state, but during the manager's tenure of office, shall reside within the town. No council member shall receive such appointment during the term for which the council member shall have been elected nor within one year after the expiration of the council member's term. The town manager shall receive such compensation as the council shall fix from time to time by ordinance or resolution. The town council may remove the town manager at any time by a majority vote of its members.

(22) Powers and duties of the town manager. The town manager shall be the chief executive officer of the town, responsible to the council for the management of all town affairs placed in the manager's charge by or under this charter. The town manager shall:

- (a) Appoint and suspend or remove all town employees and appointive administrative officers provided for by or under this charter, except as otherwise provided by law, this charter, or personnel rules adopted pursuant to this charter. The town manager may authorize any administrative officer subject to the manager's direction and supervision to exercise these powers with respect to subordinates in that officer's department, office, or agency;
- (b) Direct and supervise the administration of all departments, offices, and agencies of the town, except as otherwise provided by this charter or by law;
- (c) Attend all town council meetings. The town manager shall have the right to take part in discussion but shall not vote;
- (d) See that all laws, provisions of this charter, and acts of the town council subject to enforcement by the town manager or by officers subject to the manager's direction and supervision are faithfully executed;
- (e) Prepare and submit the annual budget and capital program to the town council and implement the final budget approved by council to achieve the goals of the town;
- (f) Submit to the town council and make available to the public a complete report on the finances and administrative activities of the town as of the end of each fiscal year;
- (g) Make such other reports as the town council may require concerning operations;
- (h) Keep the town council fully advised as to the financial condition and future needs of the town;
- (i) Make recommendations to the town council concerning the affairs of the town and facilitate the work of the town council in developing policy;
- (j) Provide staff support services for the mayor and council members;

AMHERST TOWN CODE - CHARTER

- (k) Assist the council in developing long-term goals for the town and strategies to implement these goals;
- (l) Encourage and provide staff support for regional and intergovernmental cooperation;
- (m) Promote partnerships among council, staff, and citizens in developing public policy and building a sense of community; and
- (n) Perform such other duties as are specified in this charter or may be required by the town council.

(23) Council not to interfere with appointments or removals. Neither the council nor any of its members shall direct or request the appointment of any person to, or removal from, office by the town manager or any of the manager's subordinates, or in any manner take part in the appointment or removal of officers and employees in the administrative services of the town. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the council and its members shall deal with the administration solely through the town manager, and neither the council nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinates of the town manager, either publicly or privately.

(24) Emergencies. In case of accident, disaster, or other circumstance creating a public emergency, the town manager may award contracts and make purchases for the purpose of meeting said emergency, but the manager shall file promptly with council a certificate showing such emergency and the necessity for such action, together with an itemized account of all expenditures.

ARTICLE IV. TAXATION AND FINANCES

Sec. 4.01 Enumerated powers and duties of Town Council

(1) The town council shall have control of taxation and finances for its municipal purposes. It shall have the following powers:

(2) Annual budget. To prepare, or cause to be prepared, annually, a budget showing the estimated receipts and proposed expenditures for town purposes as required by state law, and to publish the same.

(3) Annual levy. To raise annually by levy and collection of taxes and assessments in the said town on all such property, real and personal, as is now or may hereafter be subject to taxation by towns by the laws of the commonwealth, such sums of money as the council thereof may deem necessary for the purposes of the said town in such manner as the said council shall deem expedient in accordance with this Charter, the Constitution and laws of this state and the United States; provided, however, that it shall impose no taxes on the bonds of the said town.

(4) Special or local assessments. To impose special or local assessments for local improvements and enforce the payment thereof, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this state, as may be in force at the time of the imposition of such special or local assessments.

(5) Power to contract debts and issue bonds, give notes, etc. To contract debts in the name of and for the use of the town and make and issue, or cause to be made and issued, as evidence thereof, bonds, notes or other obligations, within the limitations prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this state concerning bonds issued by towns, upon credit of the town, or solely upon the credit of specific property owned by the town or solely upon the credit of income derived from property used in connection with any public utility owned and operated by the town.

(6) Temporary borrowing. To borrow money temporarily, pending the issuance and sale of any bonds, notes or other obligations authorized by this Charter, or in anticipation of the receipt of taxes and revenue of the current fiscal year, and to issue notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefore, and from time to time to renew such temporary loans or to use current funds to be ultimately repaid from the proceeds of said bonds, notes or other obligations, or from the town taxes and revenues, as the case may be.

(7) Expenditure of money. To expend the money of the town for all lawful purposes.

(8) Licensing the taxation of slot machines. To levy a tax or a license on any slot machine or similar device of any kind, whether a license may be required therefor by the state or not, and may, if permitted by general law, exceed the state license, if any be required, and may provide penalties for any violation thereof.

(9) Licensing of circuses, carnivals, shows, etc. To license and regulate the holding and location of shows, circuses, public exhibitions, carnivals, and other similar shows or fairs, or prohibit the holding of the same, or any of them within the limits of the town or within one mile thereof; provided, that the license fee for holding any of the foregoing within one mile of the town shall only be sufficient to provide regulation and protection.

(10) Licensing of businesses, trades, professions and callings. To impose licenses by ordinance upon businesses, trades, professions or callings, and upon persons, firms, associations or corporations engaged therein or offering to do business within the boundaries of the town, whose principal office is or is not located in the town, except when prohibited by general law, whether or not a license may be required therefore by the state. The fee for such license may exceed the state license fee if any be required.

(11) Licensing of certain wholesalers. Licenses may also be imposed upon and a fee therefore collected from persons, firms or corporations selling and delivering at the same time at other than a definite place of business, goods, wares or merchandise, to licensed dealers or retailers in the town.

(12) Fees for issuance or transfer of licenses. For every license issued or transferred under this Charter, there may be prescribed by ordinance a reasonable charge or fee, for issuing or transferring the same. Such charges or fees shall be paid into the town treasury.

(13) Liens and other remedies to enforce collection of taxes, levies, penalties and assessments. A lien shall exist on all real estate within the corporate limits for taxes, levies, penalties or assessments in favor of the town, levied or assessed thereon from the commencement of the year for which the same was levied or assessed, and the penalties and procedure for collecting such taxes and for selling real estate for town taxes shall be the same as provided by the general laws of this Commonwealth. The council shall have the benefit of all other remedies for the collection of town taxes which are now, or may hereafter be permitted under the general laws of the state, including the power to distrain goods and chattels for failure to pay taxes levied thereon.

ARTICLE V. PROPERTY

Sec. 5.01. Enumerated powers of Town Council to acquire, use and dispose of.

The town council shall have the following powers:

(1) Generally. To acquire by purchase, devise, condemnation or otherwise, property, real or personal, or any estate therein within or without the town, for any purpose of the town, not inconsistent with the general law, and the Constitution of Virginia, and to hold, improve, sell, lease, mortgage, or pledge or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, including any property now owned by the town.

(2) Road construction materials and machinery. To acquire by gift, purchase, exchange or by the exercise of the power of eminent domain within this state, lands, or any interest or estate in lands, rock quarries, gravel pits, sandpits, water and water rights, and the necessary roadways thereto, either within or without the town, and to acquire and install machinery and equipment and build the necessary roads or trainways thereto, and to operate the same for producing material required for any and all purposes of the town.

(3) Parks, playgrounds, etc. To acquire and operate parks, playgrounds and public grounds within or without the corporate limits of the town, and to place the same either within or without the town, stadia, swimming pools, recreation and amusement buildings, structures or enclosures of every character and charge admission thereto, and to rent out or lease the privileges of the same.

(4) Airport and landing fields. To acquire by condemnation, purchase or otherwise, provide for, maintain, operate and protect aircraft landing fields either within or without the corporate limits of the town.

(5) Lands for industrial or commercial purposes. To acquire in any lawful manner, for the purpose of encouraging commerce and manufacture, lands within or without the town, not exceeding at any one time five hundred acres in the aggregate, and from time to time to sell or lease the same or any part thereof for industrial or commercial use and purposes, irrespective of the consideration paid for such lease or sale.

(6) Miscellaneous public improvements. To construct, purchase, maintain, regulate and operate public improvements of all kinds, including municipal and other buildings, armories, sewage disposal plants, jails, comfort stations, markets and all buildings and structures necessary or appropriate for the use and proper operation of town and to acquire by condemnation or otherwise all lands, riparian and other rights and easements necessary for such improvements, or any of them, and, either within or without the town to construct, maintain or aid therein, roads and bridges to any property owned by the said town, and situated beyond the corporate limits thereof, and to acquire land necessary for the aforesaid uses by condemnation or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI. UTILITIES

Sec. 6.01. Enumerated powers of Town Council.

The town council shall have the following powers:

(1) Electricity and gas. To own, operate and maintain electric light and gas works, either within or without the corporate limits of the town and to supply electricity and gas, whether the same be generated or purchased by said town, to its customers and consumers both within and without the corporate limits of the said town, at such price and upon such terms as it may prescribe, and to that end it may contract for and purchase electricity and gas from the owners thereof upon such terms as it may deem expedient.

(2) Water supply and protection thereof; water works; water mains and sewer lines and authority to require properties to be connected thereto. To own, operate and maintain water works and to acquire in any lawful manner in any county of the state, such water, lands, property rights and riparian rights as the council of the town may deem necessary for the purpose of providing an adequate water supply to the town and piping and conducting the same; to lay, erect and maintain all necessary mains and sewer lines, either within or without the corporate limits of the town, and to require abutting property owners within such corporate limits to connect therewith, for the distribution of water to its customers and consumers, both within and without the corporate limits of the town, and to charge and collect water rents therefor; to erect and maintain all necessary dams, pumping stations and other works in connection therewith; to make reasonable rules and regulations promoting the purity of its water supply and for protecting the same from pollution; and for this purpose to exercise full police powers and sanitary patrol over all land comprised within the limits of the watershed, tributary to any such water supply wherever such lands may be located in this state; to impose and enforce adequate penalties for the violation of any such rules and regulations; and to prevent by injunction any pollution or threatened pollution of such water supply, and any and all acts likely to impair the purity thereof; and to carry out the powers herein granted, the town may exercise within the state all powers of eminent domain provided by the laws of this state.

(3) Sanitary sewers, and authority to require properties to connect therewith; sewage disposal plants. To establish, construct, and maintain sanitary sewers, sewer lines and systems, and to require abutting property owners to connect therewith; to establish, construct, maintain, and operate sewage disposal plants, and to acquire by condemnation or otherwise, within or without the town limits, all land, rights-of-way, riparian and other rights and easements necessary for said purposes, and to charge and assess and collect reasonable fees, rentals, assessments or costs of service for connecting with and using the same.

(4) Service charges and fees; permits for use of facilities. To charge and collect fees for permits to use public facilities and for public services and privileges; and to have the right and power to charge for any service rendered or convenience furnished to those residing without the corporate limits different from the rates charged for similar services or conveniences to those residing within the corporate limits.

(5) Collection and disposal of garbage, etc. To collect and dispose of sewage, offal, ashes, garbage, carcasses of dead animals and other refuse, and make reasonable charges therefore; to acquire and operate reduction or any other plants for utilization and disposal of such material; to contract for or regulate the collection and disposal thereof; and to require the collection and disposal thereof, and to acquire land within or without the town for said purpose.

(6) Assessment and collection of water and sewage rates and charges; security deposit before rendition of service. To establish, impose and enforce the collection of water and sewage rates, and rates and charges for public utilities, or other services, products, or conveniences, operated, rented, or furnished by the town; and to assess, or cause to be assessed, after reasonable notice to the owner or owners, water and sewage rates and charge directly against the owner or owners of the building, or against the proper tenant or tenants; and may by ordinance require a deposit of such reasonable amount as it may prescribe before furnishing such service either to owner or tenant.

(7) Franchises. To grant franchises for public utilities in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and general laws; provided, however, the town shall at any time have the power to construct, own, operate, manage, sell, encumber or otherwise dispose of, either within or without the town, any and all public utilities for the town, and to sell the services thereof any existing franchises to the contrary notwithstanding, if permitted by the terms thereof.

(8) Poles and wires; gas pipes. To regulate, permit or prohibit poles and wires for electric, telephone, and telegraph purposes erected or to be erected and gas pipes to be laid in the streets and alleys of the town; to require the owner or lessee of any electric light, telephone, or telegraph pole, or poles, or wires, now in use or hereafter erected, to change the location of or move the same.

ARTICLE VII. STREETS.

Sec. 7.01. General powers of Town Council relating to streets, sidewalks, public ways and public places; golf courses, parks, shade trees, etc.; regulations of operation and speed of vehicles on streets; street names.

The town council shall have the following powers:

(1) The town shall have the power to acquire, establish, enter, open, widen, extend, grade, improve, construct, maintain, and clear public highways, streets, sidewalks, boulevards, parkways, alleys, and to alter, vacate, or close the same; to establish and maintain parks, golf courses, playgrounds and public grounds and to keep them lighted and in good order; to construct, maintain and operate bridges, viaducts, subways, tunnels, sewers and drains, and to regulate the use of all such highways, parks, public grounds and works; to plant and maintain or remove shade trees along the streets and upon such public grounds; to prevent the obstruction of such streets, alleys and highways, to regulate and operation and speed of cars and vehicles within the streets and highways within the town; and to do all other things whatsoever adapted to make the streets and highways safe, convenient and attractive.

- (2) To give names or to alter the names of the streets.

ARTICLE VIII. BUILDING REGULATIONS

Sec. 8.01. Enumerated powers of Town Council.

The town council shall have the following powers:

- (1) Regulation of size, height, materials, etc.; dangerous structures. To regulate the size, height, materials and construction of buildings, fences, walls, retaining walls and other structures hereafter erected in such manner as the public safety and convenience may require; to remove or require to be removed or reconstructed any building, structure or addition thereto which by reason of dilapidation, defect of structure, or other causes may become dangerous to life or property, or which may be erected contrary to law.

- (2) Regulation of construction; building code; setback lines; standard for dwellings and business houses. To provide for regular and safe construction of houses in the town for the future and to provide a building code for the town;² to provide setback lines on the streets beyond which no buildings may be constructed if permitted by general law; to require the standard of all dwelling houses to be maintained in residential sections in keeping with the majority of residences therein, and if permitted by general law to require the standard of all business houses to be maintained in business sections in keeping with the business houses therein.

- (3) Comprehensive plan for town; plats; recording of plats. To make and adopt a comprehensive plan for the town and to that end all plats and replats hereafter made subdividing any land within the town, or within one mile thereof, into streets, alleys, roads and lots or tracts, shall be submitted to and approved by the council before such plats or replats are filed for record, or recorded, in the office of the clerk of Amherst County, Virginia.

- (4) Permits may be required; misdemeanor to build without required permit. To issue, or refuse (in case of noncompliance with the building requirements of the town) to issue, permits for the construction of buildings, fences, walls and other structures in the said town; and any person, firm or corporation failing to secure such permit prior to the beginning of said construction or other work shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE IX. ADDITIONAL POWERS

Sec. 9.01. Enumerated miscellaneous powers of Town.

² Editor's note--See Acts 1972, ch. 829, approved April 10, 1972, which provides for the promulgation of a statewide building code which shall supersede all municipal and county building codes.

AMHERST TOWN CODE - CHARTER

In addition to powers elsewhere mentioned in this Charter and the powers conferred by general law and the Constitution, the town shall have the following powers:

(1) Nuisances; maintenance of premises; things detrimental to health, morals, aesthetics, safety, convenience and welfare generally. To compel the abatement and removal of all nuisances within the town or upon property owned by the town without its limits at the expense of the person or persons causing the same or of the owner or occupancy of the ground or premises wherein the same may be, and to collect said expense by suit or motion or by distress and sale; to require all lands, lots and other premises within the town to be kept clean and sanitary and free from stagnant water, weeds, filth, and unsightly deposits, or to make them so at the expense of the owners or occupants thereof, and to collect said expense by suit or motion or by distress and sale; to regulate or prevent noisome or offensive business within the said town, or the exercise of any dangerous or unwholesome business, trade, or employment therein; to regulate the transportation of all articles through the streets of the town; to compel the abatement of smoke and dust, and prevent unnecessary noise; to regulate the location of stables and the manner in which the same shall be constructed and kept; to regulate the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of bill boards and signs; and generally to define, prohibit, abate, suppress, and prevent all things detrimental to the health, morals, aesthetics, safety, convenience and welfare of the inhabitants of the town; and to require all owners or occupants of property having public sidewalks adjacent thereto to keep the same clean and sanitary, free from weeds, filth, unsightly deposits, ice and snow, and any obstruction.

(2) Fire protection generally. To extinguish and prevent fires, and to establish, regulate, and control a fire department or division; to establish and designate from time to time fire limits, within which limits wooden buildings shall not be constructed, added to, enlarged or repaired, and to direct that any or all future buildings within such limits shall be constructed of stone, natural or artificial, concrete, brick, iron or other fireproof materials; to enact stringent and efficient laws for securing the safety of persons from fires in halls and buildings used for public assemblages, entertainments or amusements.

(3) Explosives; fireworks; firearms; bonfires. To direct the location and construction of all buildings for storing explosives or combustible substances; to regulate the sale and use of gunpowder, nitroglycerin, fireworks, kerosene, gasoline, and other like material; to regulate or prevent the exhibition of fireworks, the discharge of firearms, and the making of bonfires within the corporate limits of said town.

(4) Health and sanitation; department of health. To provide for the preservation of the general health of the inhabitants of said town, make regulations to secure the same, inspect all foodstuffs and prevent the introduction and sale in said town of any articles or thing intended for human consumption which is adulterated, impure, or otherwise dangerous to health, and to condemn, seize, and destroy or otherwise dispose of any such article or thing without liability to the owner thereof; to prevent the introduction or spread of contagious or infectious diseases, and prevent and suppress disease generally; to provide and regulate hospitals within or without the town limits, and if necessary to the suppression of disease, to enforce the removal of persons affected with contagious or infectious disease to hospitals provided for them; to provide for the organization of a department or bureau of health, to have the powers of a board of health for the town, with authority necessary for the prompt and efficient performance of its duties, with the power to invest any or all of the officials or employees of such department of health with such powers as the police officers of the town have, to establish quarantine ground within or without the town, and establish and enforce such quarantine regulations against contagious and infectious diseases as the council may see fit, subject to the laws of the state and the United States.

(5) Care, etc., of children and persons sick, aged, insane or paupers. To provide for the care, support and maintenance of children and of sick, aged, insane, or poor persons and paupers.

(6) Maintenance of various institutions. To provide and maintain either within or without the town, charitable, recreative, curative, corrective, detention or penal institutions.

(7) Animals and fowl. To regulate poultry or other fowl, hogs, dogs or other animals being kept in or running at large in the town, or any thickly populated portion thereof, and to subject the same to such taxes, regulations and penalties as the council may think proper.

(8) Acts of annoyance on streets; abuse of animals. To prevent the riding or driving of horses or other animals at an improper speed; to prevent the flying of kites, throwing of stones, the setting off of fireworks or engaging in any sort of employment in the public streets which is dangerous or annoying to passersby, and to prohibit and punish the abuse of animals.

(9) Markets and keeping of foodstuffs; hucksters; junk dealers. To establish markets in the town and regulate the same and to enforce such regulations in regard to the keeping and sale of fresh meats, vegetables, eggs, and other green groceries, and the trade of hucksters and junk dealers as may be deemed advisable.

(10) Exclusion from town of certain classes of undesirable persons. To prevent any persons having no visible means of support, paupers, and persons who may be dangerous to the peace and safety of the town from coming to town from without the same; and to expel therefrom any such person who has been in the town less than twelve months.

(11) Police powers; police department. To exercise full police powers and establish and maintain a department or division of police.
